

KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER – YEAR 3 ANIMALS, including HUMANS

	KEYWORDS and what they mean
Animals, including humans, cannot make their own food They get nutrition from what they eat	Herbivores are animals that eat only plants. Carnivores are animals that eat other animals. Omnivores are animals that eat plants and animals. FOOD GROUPS AND THEIR USES Proteins – used for growth Carbohydrates – used for energy Fats – used to store energy in the body Vitamins and Minerals – used to prevent disease	Humans, and some animals, have a skeleton and muscles for support protection movement