We are a not-for-profit organisation who provide children in Bury with expert music tuition, and a place to express themselves.

Learning to play a musical instrument can enable your child to build confidence and develop social and motor skills. Playing in our groups with like-minded children, they'll learn new life skills while experiencing the value of teamwork and the joy of performing.

We provide weekly lessons during the day in schools, and we offer evening lessons at our building at The Rock, in Bury town centre.

We organise fantastic events throughout the year and regular performances at prestigious venues such as the RNCM, Bridgewater Hall, and Band on the Wall, foreign concert tours, and regional festivals.
